

NATIONAL GUARD UNITS PRACTICE
QUICK REACTION FORCE TRAINING
ON STREETS OF SCOTTSBLUFF

RELEASED BY LTC BOB VRANA

FEBRUARY 11, 2005

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LINCOLN, Neb. – Nearly 75 National Guard Soldiers from units in Scottsbluff and Chadron are training in quick reaction force techniques this weekend on the streets of Scottsbluff.

The training will culminate in an exercise at noon on Sunday taking place on the east side of Scottsbluff on 15th Street between 19th and 21st avenue

The Soldiers, members of the 1057th Light/Medium Truck Company, Chadron and Detachment 1,1057th Light/Medium Truck Company, Scottsbluff, are participating in the quick reaction force training to remain proficient in methods to effectively deter mob violence and protect public and civilian property during civil disturbances.